

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, September 18. 1703.

From the Hague Gazette, dated Sept. 10.

Rome, August 18.

THIS Week the Pope visited most of the Churches of this City that are dedicated to the Virgin Mary, on occasion of the Feast of her Assumption, which was celebrated on Thursday last. His Holiness has likewise been to visit the Church and Hospital of St. Roch, and made a Discovery which will not be much to the Advantage of the Jesuits; those Pious Fathers had made Application to his Holiness to have the Administration of that Hospital committed to them, on pretence that due Care was not taken of it; but the Pope found every thing in good order, and was inform'd at the same time, that the true Motive of the Zeal of those charitable Fathers, was a Design to appropriate to their own use, certain Lands of a considerable Value belonging to that Hospital, which lye near some of theirs at Pont Galere. On Monday last Don Hannibal Albani, the Pope's Nephew, held a publick Disputation in Philosophy and Divinity in the Church of St. Ignatius, in presence of a great number of Prelates, and of 20 Cardinals. The Envoys of Venice, of Bologna, and of Ferrara, and Don Horatio Albani Father of Don Hannibal, were likewise present: The Pope sent to some of the most acute Monks in this City, to appear and oppose his Nephew, which they did, but he answer'd them so well, that with a general Consent and extraordinary Applause he was made Doctor in Philosophy and Theology. The Queen of Poland has Concerts of Musick at her Palace three Nights in the Week, to which a great Number of Persons of Quality resort. The Jesuite Savini a celebrated Preacher, is made Historiographer of Spain by King Philip V. and tis said he has undertaken to continue the Memoirs of Vittorio Siri.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, dated Sept. 7.

There is a great talk here of a Discovery made by a Soldier of the Hospital des Invalides of a Treasure hidden in the Castle of Meudon: The Story is this, This Soldier has given Information to Monsieur de Sojeux Captain of that Castle, that in 1689, the deceased Marquess de Louvois, Minister and Secretary of State, order'd a Vault to be made deep in the Ground in the Garden of that Castle, and in it to be put a Barrel well hoop'd with Iron and cover'd over with Plaster; now the Soldier imagines there can be nothing but Money in this Barrel. He adds, that he was employ'd to make the Vault with two other Masons, neither of which has ever been heard of since. They have actually begun to dig for this Vault, and we shall soon know what will be the issue of it. Mean time abundance of People are persuaded that Minister must needs have hid considerable Sums of Money one where or other, because he had between three or four Millions of Livres coming in yearly for 25 years together.

Lisbon, Sept. 8. Since Sir Cloudsly left the Coast of Portugal, we have receiv'd no News of him, except by a Genouese who saw him anchor'd near Tangier. On the 1st instant arriv'd here a French Ambassador, the King is at present at Alcantara, and 'tis said, denies him Audience; So 'tis believ'd he will soon retire, the Portuguese being incens'd with the News they had the very same day that he arriv'd, that the French, under the Name of the Spaniards, had seiz'd on the Portuguese Fortification in the River of Plate near Buenos Ayres.
